

Ramona Scholar in ENGLISH Summer 2018

Select one or more of the books listed below to read during the summer and report on in the fall. Any student may read any book for any teacher. At the beginning of school you must meet with the teacher of the book you selected to discuss it. You might want to go online to get information about the book you select before you read it. Enjoy!

Dr. Vincent

Never Let Me Go by Kazuo Ishiguro

Or

Between the World and Me by Ta-Nehisi Coates

Ms. Clavin

The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society

by Mary Ann Shaffer and Annie Barrows

OR please complete ONE of the following two options instead of reading a book:

I. Write and compile a short collection of ten poems that

- Do not rhyme
- Are, on average, about 20 lines long
- Complement each other (are united thematically)

II. Write and compile a short collection of three short stories that

- Feature developed characters, settings, and themes
- Are, IN TOTAL, about 3000 words or more.
- Complement each other (are united thematically)

See an English teacher when you are finished with your book, and be a Ramona Scholar!
